Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the eligibility criteria for taking the Citizenship Test?

To be eligible for naturalization and the Citizenship Test, you must meet certain requirements, including: being a legal permanent resident for at least five years (or three years if married to a U.S. citizen), being physically present in the U.S. for at least half of that time, and demonstrating good moral character.

2. How do I apply for naturalization and take the Citizenship Test?

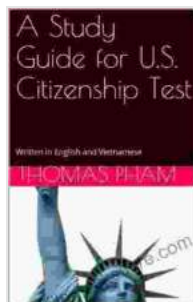

To apply for naturalization, you must complete and submit Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). After submitting your application, you will be scheduled for a biometrics appointment and an interview. If you pass the interview and the test, you will be eligible for a naturalization ceremony.

3. What is the passing score for the Citizenship Test?

To pass the Civics and History portion of the test, you must correctly answer at least 6 out of 10 questions. For the English portion, you must demonstrate your ability to read, write, and speak English at a basic level.
