Synopsis

In Love With The Villainess Light Novel Vol. 1 introduces us to Rei Taylor, a young woman who has reincarnated into the world of her favorite otome game as Claire Francois, the villainess destined to meet a tragic end. However, Rei is determined to change her fate and redeem Claire's character, even if it means falling in love with the game's male lead, Prince Leonhart von Granvelle.

Rei's journey is not an easy one. As Claire, she is constantly misunderstood and mistreated by those around her. However, she never gives up hope, and she slowly begins to win over the hearts of those who matter most. Along the way, she learns the true meaning of love and friendship, and she discovers that even the most unlikely of romances can blossom.

Characters

Rei Taylor / Claire Francois is a strong and determined young woman. She is not afraid to stand up for what she believes in, and she is always willing to help others. Despite her difficult past, she has a kind heart and a positive outlook on life.

Prince Leonhart von Granvelle is the male lead of the otome game. He is a kind and compassionate prince who is always willing to help those in need. However, he is also bound by duty, and he must often choose between his heart and his responsibilities.

Yuriana Anderson is Claire's best friend. She is a kind and supportive girl who is always there for Claire when she needs her. She is also a talented mage, and she often uses her magic to help Claire out of difficult situations.
